NOTICE TO MARINERS—(No. 37).

AUSTRALIA—EAST COAST.

KEPPEL BAY.

Cape Capricorn—Subsidiary light on eastern slope, and discontinuance of light on north-west slope.

The following Notice to Mariners, issued by the British Admiralty (No. 97 of 1889), is republished:—

The Government of Queensland has given notice, dated 23rd January 1889, that a subsidiary fired white light, for leading clear of Rocky islet, is now exhibited at an elevation of 240 feet above high water, and bearing S. 63° E., distant 77 yards from the principal light-house on Cape Capricorn, south side of Keppel Bay:—

The light, the arrangement of which is somewhat similar to that of the subsidiary light on Bustard head, No. 751 in Light List, is obscured by a screen through a sector of 29°, or from the bearing of N.W. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. to N.N.W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. to the distance of one mile seaward of Rocky islet between these two bearings, but is otherwise visible from the bearing of W. by N. to near the eastern coast of Curtis island. The north-eastern edge of the obscured sector leads 5 cables seaward of Rocky islet, and the south-western edge of it leads 3 cables inshore of that danger.

NOTE.—Vessels passing seaward of the obscured part of the sector will not be in less than 13 fathoms while abreast the islet. Approaching from the eastward, the principal light on Cape Capricorn should not be opened southward of the subsidiary light, as the lights in line lead very close to the line of obscuration. To pass inshore of Rocky islet, the subsidiary light must be kept northward of the bearing N.N.W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W.

Also, that the small subsidiary light on the north-west slope of Cape Capricorn is discontinued.

(2). Port Denison, south entrance—Additional leading lights.

Also, dated 30th January 1889, that two additional leading lights are now exhibited on the southern side of South entrance to port Denison, and which kept in line lead clear of the reef extending south-eastward of Stone island:—

The lights are fired white lights, 500 yards apart, and bearing N.E. by E. and S.W. by W. from each other. The eastern light bears S. 83° E. from Mount Braumston, distant 700 yards, and is elevated about 25 feet above high water. The western light is elevated 60 feet above high water.

Approximate position, lat. 20° 4' S., long. 148° 15' E.

NOTE.—Vessels after rounding Cape Gloucester should steer S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. until the abovementioned leading lights are brought in line bearing S. W. by W., and keep them so till the leading lights westward of the town of Bowen are in line bearing N.W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. The inner leading lights should then be kept in line until the anchorage is reached, or the sector of red light on North head is opened out on a N.N.E. bearing.

(The bearings and course are Magnetic, and those affecting the visibility of lights are given from

"In middle vernacular schools in Bengal, Dr. Cuninghame's 'Sanitary Primer' and Baboo R. P. Mukerjea's 'Shasthya Rakshya' will continue to be read. For the upper primary examination the text-books will henceforward be (1) Dr. Cuninghame's 'Sanitary Primer' (omitting the parts inclosed in square brackets) and (2) Baboo J. N. Mukerjea's 'Sarir Palan.' For the lower primary standard the 'Sanitary Primer' will in future be omitted, and Baboo J. N. Mukerjea's 'Sarir Palan' will be the only text-book."

The Government of India in the Home Department having directed, in a resolution dated the 24th September 1887, that a translation of a modified edition of the "Way to Health," a Sanitary Primer published by the Christian Vernacular Society, Madras, should be substituted for Dr. Cuninghame's Sanitary Primer in the curriculum of primary and middle vernacular schools, the Bengali translation of the "Way to Health," prepared under the orders of the Government of Bengal, will form part of the upper primary and middle scholarship course of 1891 in substitution of Dr. Cuninghame's Sanitary Primer.

The result of these orders will be that in middle schools in which the language is Bengali, Rai R. P. Mukerjea Bahadur's "Shasthya Rakshya," and in upper primary schools Baboo J. N. Mukerjea's "Sarir Palan" will continue to be read, in addition to the Bengali translation of the "Way to Health."

The Bengali translation of the "Way to Health," which is the property of Government, may now be obtained at the Bengal Secretariat Press at one anna a copy. Under instructions from the District Magistrate or the Chairman of the District Board, as the case may be, the Deputy Inspector of each district should indent on the Superintendent, Government Printing, Bengal, for as many copies of the book as will probably be required, forwarding a public service transfer receipt for the amount. An advance for this purpose may be made from the primary allotment of the district, the sale proceeds of the books being paid in convenient sums into the Treasury to the credit of the same allotment.

A. CAORT, Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.

4. The sanitary arrangements in such places shall be regulated generally by the rules prescribed under Act I of 1882 for depôts, subject to such modification as the Magistrate of the district may consider necessary where the accommodation provided is for a small number of occupants, or is for temporary use only.

5. The agent shall be bound to carry out any order given by the District Magistrate for the purpose of securing compliance with the rules for depôts referred to in the foregoing article.

6. An agent shall either himself accompany the emigrants engaged or assisted by him throughout their journey to the labour districts, or shall send with them some competent person.

The Portuguese Government has given notice, dated 18th February 1889, that a beacon has been erected on Temby (Catembe) beach, south side of entrance to English (Espírito Santo) river.

This beacon, constructed of iron and wood, and elevated 36 feet above the sea, is so placed that when kept in line with the beacon of rough masonry previously existing, bearing S 85½° W., the northern limit for crossing the bar of English River is indicated.

NOTE.—Vessels approaching the bar should therefore not navigate northward of the course indicated by these beacons.

Particulars of St. Lazarus bank.

THE British Admiralty have given notice (Notice to Mariners No 107 of 1889) that the following information relating to St. Lazarus bank has been received from Commander T. F. Pullen, being the result of an examination made by H. M. Surveying Vessel Stork and her boats, extending over six days, from 3rd to 8th February 1889:—

The area of the bank within the depths of 100 fathoms is of oblong shape, 11 miles long north and south, with an extreme breadth of 6 miles, and is included between the parallels of $12^{\circ} 12'$ and $12^{\circ} 22'$ S., and long. $41^{\circ} 20'$ and $41^{\circ} 26\frac{1}{2}'$ E.

The general depth was found to be under 20 fathoms, the nature of the bottom being sand and coral. The shoalest part within the depth of 10 fathoms is near the northern end of the bank, and is about 4 miles long in a north-west direction and 2 miles broad; the least depth found of $3\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms being confined to a small coral patch in lat. $12^{\circ} 13'$ S.; long. $41^{\circ} 21\frac{1}{2}'$ E.

Beyond the depth of 100 fathoms the soundings increase rapidly; at 6 miles north-east of the shoalest part, 1,080 fathoms was found, and at 14 and 25 miles eastward of the shoal part 1,308 and 1,131 fathoms were obtained.

A regular tide was observed when at anchor on the bank, the flood setting E. S. E. about 4 hours, and the ebb W. N. W. about 7 hours, with about half an hour slack water; the strength at springs was 2 knots; the rise and fall approximately 12 feet. It is probable that at a little distance from the bank, and when out of the influence of the tidal streams that exist upon it, the currents vary in direction and velocity at different times of the year.

Fish in abundance were caught on the bank.

Having regard to the nature of this examination as detailed by Commander Pullen, it is considered that the several shoal soundings hitherto reported on or near St. Lazarus bank fall within the area assigned to it by H. M. S. Stork.

(The bearings are magnetic. Variation 12° Westward in 1889).

Regarding Baragya Flats—Gulf of Martaban.

COMMANDER ALFRED CARPENTER, R.N., in charge Marine Survey of India, has given notice that the I. M. Steamer Enterprise having carefully examined the southern edge of these flats found that the soundings shown on the present Admiralty Chart had not altered.

Navigators should bear in mind that high water full and change occurs at about 10h. 30m. west of the Krishna Shoal, and that the set of the stream will therefore differ very considerably from any calculation based on high or low water at Elephant Point, Rangoon.

Approaching Amherst, vessels will find a swatch of about 14 fathoms with 11 fathoms on either side of it lying near the western limit of Double Island light.

Soundings have altered very much in Lat. 15° N. and Long. $96^{\circ} 50'$ E., the twenty fathom line now stretching out to that position. Indications of this change will be seen on Admiralty Chart 823, south of the parallel of 15 degrees

Regarding Sacramento Shoal—Godavari Coast.

THE following information has been received from Commander Carpenter, R.N., in charge of the Marine Survey of India:—

Sacramento Shoal—Lying in Lat. $16^{\circ} 35' 30''$ N., Long $82^{\circ} 19'$ E., is a sand bank which nearly dries. From it, Hope Island light-house bears North distant $13\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

The ten fathom line runs two miles outside the bank.

There are always breakers on it except at its very extreme.

An arm of the Godavari River has formed two spits, the southern of which is called the Sacramento Shoal. There is excellent anchorage of four fathoms under the lee of the northern spit. Between the spits there is a channel into the river having nine feet on the bar at low water; and deep water inside right up to the Godavari.

The only clearing mark by day is Thirthalmundi village, which stands on a mound with an obelisk among the huts bearing N. by W. which leads one mile outside the shoal.

By night, Hope Island light visible on a clear night from a few ratlines up the rigging, bearing N. by W. leads two miles outside the shoal.

Bearings are Magnetic.

ORISSA COAST.

Navigators cautioned when passing the localities near the Dévi River mouth and entrance into Chilka Lake.

By a recent survey of the coast between the Mahanaddi river and Gopalpur, it was found that the coast was quite free from submerged dangers. A small bank projects three-quarters of a mile seaward from the Dévi river mouth, and a similar one projects half a mile seaward from the entrance into Chilka lake.

Vessels should not shoal to less than 9 fathoms when passing these localities.

Otherwise the coast is clear, but the ten-fathom line frequently runs within three-quarters of a mile of the breakers on the shore.

There is a channel of 8 feet at low water into the Dévi river.

The northern mouth of the Mahanaddi appears to have closed, and the breakers off the southern mouth are now extending seaward.

Between Dévi river and Gopalpur the 20-fathom line varies from 5 to 13 miles off shore, and the 100-fathom line maintains a fairly uniform distance off shore of 18 miles.

Distances judged by eye are very deceptive on this coast.

Bearings are magnetic.

KEPPEL BAY.

The Government of Queensland has given notice, dated 23rd January 1889, that a subsidiary fixed white light, for leading clear of Rocky islet, is now exhibited at an elevation of 240 feet above high water, and bearing S. 63° E., distant 77 yards from the principal light-house on Cape Capricorn, south side of Keppel Bay:—

The light, the arrangement of which is somewhat similar to that of the subsidiary light on Bustard head, No. 751 in Light List, is obscured by a screen through a sector of 29°, or from the bearing of N.W. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. to N.N.W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W. to the distance of one mile seaward of Rocky islet between these two bearings, but is otherwise visible from the bearing of W. by N. to near the eastern coast of Curtis island. The north-eastern edge of the obscured sector leads 5 cables seaward of Rocky islet, and the south-western edge of it leads 3 cables inshore of that danger.

NOTE.—Vessels passing seaward of the obscured part of the sector will not be in less than 13 fathoms while abreast the islet. Approaching from the eastward, the principal light on Cape Capricorn should not be opened southward of the subsidiary light, as the lights in line lead very close to the line of obscuration. To pass inshore of Rocky islet, the subsidiary light must be kept northward of the bearing N.N.W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W.

Also, dated 30th January 1889, that two additional leading lights are now exhibited on the southern side of South entrance to port Denison, and which kept in line lead clear of the reef extending south-eastward of Stone island:—

The lights are fixed white lights, 500 yards apart, and bearing N.E. by E. and S.W. by W. from each other. The eastern light bears S. 83° E. from Mount Bramston, distant 700 yards, and is elevated about 25 feet above high water. The western light is elevated 60 feet above high water.

Approximate position, lat. 20° 4' S., long. 148° 15 $\frac{1}{2}$ ' E.

NOTE.—Vessels after rounding Cape Gloucester should steer S. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. until the abovementioned leading lights are brought in line bearing S. W. by W., and keep them so till the leading lights westward of the town of Bowen are in line bearing N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. The inner leading lights should then be kept in line until the anchorage is reached, or the sector of red light on North head is opened out on a N.N.E. bearing.

BAY OF BENGAL.

ANDAMAN ISLANDS.

Regarding Little Andaman, Jane's Patch and Diligent Straits.

THE following information has been received from Commander Alfred Carpenter, R.N., in charge of the Marine Survey of India:—

Little Andaman.—The bank off the S. W. Point of this Island has now been thoroughly examined. There are some rocky ridges in the centre, partly overgrown with weed, with as little as $5\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms over them. In the S. W. monsoon the rollers on the bank are probably dangerous. The shoal centre lies in latitude $10^{\circ} 31' N.$, longitude $92^{\circ} 13' E.$

Jane's Patch marked on charts of the Andaman Islands in latitude $12^{\circ} 9' N.$, longitude $93^{\circ} 12' E.$, does not exist; but Minerva Ledge is in its correct position.

Diligent Straits.—These straits having been thoroughly surveyed are found to be free from danger, except between Strait Island and Wilson Island (formerly called Round Hill Point). The dangers in this portion may be avoided by keeping South Button Island, just touching the north point of Outram Island, on a bearing of N. E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. South Button Island may be passed close to on its northern side. There is a two-fathom patch one mile north of the N. W. point of Wilson Island (or Round Hill.)

Particulars of St. Lazarus bank.

THE British Admiralty have given notice (Notice to Mariners No 107 of 1889) that the following information relating to St. Lazarus bank has been received from Commander T. F. Pullen, being the result of an examination made by H. M. surveying Vessel Stork and her boats, extending over six days, from 3rd to 8th February 1889:—

The area of the bank within the depths of 100 fathoms is of oblong shape, 11 miles long north and south, with an extreme breadth of 6 miles, and is included between the parallels of $12^{\circ} 12'$ and $12^{\circ} 22' S$, and long. $41^{\circ} 20'$ and $41^{\circ} 26\frac{1}{2}' E$.

The general depth was found to be under 20 fathoms, the nature of the bottom being sand and coral. The shoalest part within the depth of 10 fathoms is near the northern end of the bank, and is about 4 miles long in a north-west direction and 2 miles broad; the least depth found of $3\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms being confined to a small coral patch in lat. $12^{\circ} 13' S$, long. $41^{\circ} 21\frac{1}{2}' E$.

Beyond the depth of 100 fathoms the soundings increase rapidly; at 6 miles north-east of the shoalest part, 1,080 fathoms was found, and at 14 and 25 miles eastward of the shoal part 1,308 and 1,131 fathoms were obtained.

A regular tide was observed when at anchor on the bank, the flood setting E. S. E. about 4 hours, and the ebb W. N. W. about 7 hours, with about half an hour slack water; the strength at springs was 2 knots; the rise and fall approximately 12 feet. It is probable that at a little distance from the bank, and when out of the influence of the tidal streams that exist upon it, the currents vary in direction and velocity at different times of the year.

Fish in abundance were caught on the bank.

Having regard to the nature of this examination as detailed by Commander Pullen, it is considered that the several shoal soundings hitherto reported on or near St. Lazarus bank fall within the area assigned to it by H. M. S. Stork.

Regarding Baragna Flats—Gulf of Martaban.

COMMANDER ALFRED CARPENTER, R.N., in charge Marine Survey of India, has given notice that the I. M. Steamer Enterprise having carefully examined the southern edge of these flats found that the soundings shown on the present Admiralty Chart had not altered.

Navigators should bear in mind that high water full and change occurs at about 10h. 30m. west of the Krishna Shoal, and that the set of the stream will therefore differ very considerably from any calculation based on high or low water at Elephant Point, Rangoon.

Approaching Amherst, vessels will find a swatch of about 14 fathoms with 11 fathoms on either side of it lying near the western limit of Double Island light.

Soundings have altered very much in Lat. $15^{\circ} N$. and Long. $96^{\circ} 50' E$, the twenty fathom line now stretching out to that position. Indications of this change will be seen on Admiralty Chart 823, south of the parallel of 15 degrees.

Regarding Sacramento Shoal—Godavari Coast.

THE following information has been received from Commander Carpenter, R.N., in charge of the Marine Survey of India:—

Sacramento Shoal.—Lying in Lat. $16^{\circ} 35' 30''$ N., Long $82^{\circ} 19'$ E., is a sand bank which nearly dries. From it, Hope Island light-house bears North distant $13\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

Its outer edge is two miles from the line of coast.

The ten fathom line runs two miles outside the bank.

There are always breakers on it except at its very extreme.

An arm of the Godavari River has formed two spits, the southern of which is called the Sacramento Shoal. There is excellent anchorage of four fathoms under the lee of the northern spit. Between the spits there is a channel into the river having nine feet on the bar at low water; and deep water inside right up to the Godavari.

The only clearing mark by day is Thirthalmundi village, which stands on a mound with an obelisk among the huts bearing N. by W. which leads one mile outside the shoal.

By night, Hope Island light visible on a clear night from a few ratlines up the rigging, bearing N. by W. leads two miles outside the shoal.

Bearings are Magnetic.

ORISSA COAST.

Navigators cautioned when passing the localities near the Dévi River mouth and entrance into Chilka Lake.

By a recent survey of the coast between the Mahanaddi river and Gopalpur, it was found that the coast was quite free from submerged dangers. A small bank projects three-quarters of a mile seaward from the Dévi river mouth, and a similar one projects half a mile seaward from the entrance into Chilka lake.

Vessels should not shoal to less than 9 fathoms when passing these localities.

Otherwise the coast is clear, but the ten-fathom line frequently runs within three-quarters of a mile of the breakers on the shore.

There is a channel of 8 feet at low water into the Dévi river.

The northern mouth of the Mahanaddi appears to have closed, and the breakers off the southern mouth are now extending seaward.

Between Dévi river and Gopalpur the 20-fathom line varies from 5 to 13 miles off shore, and the 100-fathom line maintains a fairly uniform distance off shore of 18 miles.

Distances judged by eye are very deceptive on this coast.

Bearings are magnetic.

KEPPEL BAY.

The Government of Queensland has given notice, dated 23rd January 1889, that a subsidiary fixed white light, for leading clear of Rocky islet, is now exhibited at an elevation of 240 feet above high water, and bearing S. 63° E., distant 77 yards from the principal light-house on Cape Capricorn, south side of Keppel Bay :—

The light, the arrangement of which is somewhat similar to that of the subsidiary light on Bustard head, No. 751 in Light List, is obscured by a screen through a sector of 29°, or from the bearing of N.W. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. to N.N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. to the distance of one mile seaward of Rocky islet between these two bearings, but is otherwise visible from the bearing of W. by N. to near the eastern coast of Curtis island. The north-eastern edge of the obscured sector leads 5 cables seaward of Rocky islet, and the south-western edge of it leads 3 cables inshore of that danger.

NOTE.—Vessels passing seaward of the obscured part of the sector will not be in less than 13 fathoms while abreast the islet. Approaching from the eastward, the principal light on Cape Capricorn should not be opened southward of the subsidiary light, as the lights in line lead very close to the line of obscuration. To pass inshore of Rocky islet, the subsidiary light must be kept northward of the bearing N.N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W.

Also, dated 30th January 1889, that two additional leading lights are now exhibited on the southern side of South entrance to port Denison, and which kept in line lead clear of the reef extending south-eastward of Stone island :—

The lights are fixed white lights, 500 yards apart, and bearing N.E. by E. and S.W. by W. from each other. The eastern light bears S. 83° E. from Mount Braunston, distant 700 yards, and is elevated about 25 feet above high water. The western light is elevated 60 feet above high water.

Approximate position, lat. 20° 4' S., long. 148° 15 $\frac{1}{2}$ ' E.

NOTE.—Vessels after rounding Cape Gloucester should steer S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. until the abovementioned leading lights are brought in line bearing S. W. by W., and keep them so till the leading lights westward of the town of Bowen are in line bearing N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. The inner leading lights should then be kept in line until the anchorage is reached, or the sector of red light on North head is opened out on a N.N.E. bearing.

(The bearings and course are Magnetic, and those affecting the visibility of lights are given from seaward. Variation, { (1) ... $7\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ } Easterly in 1889.)

ANDAMAN ISLANDS.

Regarding Little Andaman, Jane's Patch and Diligent Straits.

THE following information has been received from Commander Alfred Carpenter, R.N., in charge of the Marine Survey of India:—

Little Andaman.—The bank off the S. W. Point of this Island has now been thoroughly examined. There are some rocky ridges in the centre, partly overgrown with weed, with as little as 5½ fathoms over them. In the S. W. monsoon the rollers on the bank are probably dangerous. The shoal centre lies in latitude 10° 31' N., longitude 92° 13' E.

Jane's Patch—marked on charts of the Andaman Islands in latitude 12° 9' N., longitude 93° 12' E., does not exist; but Minerva Ledge is in its correct position.

Diligent Straits.—These straits having been thoroughly surveyed are found to be free from danger, except between Strait Island and Wilson Island (formerly called Round Hill Point). The dangers in this portion may be avoided by keeping South Button Island, just touching the north point of Outram Island, on a bearing of N. E. ¼ E. South Button Island may be passed close to on its northern side. There is a two-fathom patch one mile north of the N. W. point of Wilson Island (or Round Hill.)

Particulars of St. Lazarus bank.

THE British Admiralty have given notice (Notice to Mariners No 107 of 1889) that the following information relating to St. Lazarus bank has been received from Commander T. F. Pullen, being the result of an examination made by H. M. surveying Vessel Stork and her boats, extending over six days, from 3rd to 8th February 1889:—

The area of the bank within the depths of 100 fathoms is of oblong shape, 11 miles long north and south, with an extreme breadth of 6 miles, and is included between the parallels of $12^{\circ} 12'$ and $12^{\circ} 22' S$, and long. $41^{\circ} 20'$ and $41^{\circ} 26\frac{1}{2}' E$.

The general depth was found to be under 20 fathoms, the nature of the bottom being sand and coral. The shoalest part within the depth of 10 fathoms is near the northern end of the bank, and is about 4 miles long in a north-west direction and 2 miles broad; the least depth found of $3\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms being confined to a small coral patch in lat. $12^{\circ} 13' S$, long. $41^{\circ} 21\frac{1}{2}' E$.

Beyond the depth of 100 fathoms the soundings increase rapidly; at 6 miles north-east of the shoalest part, 1,080 fathoms was found, and at 14 and 25 miles eastward of the shoal part 1,308 and 1,131 fathoms were obtained.

A regular tide was observed when at anchor on the bank, the flood setting E. S. E. about 4 hours, and the ebb W. N. W. about 7 hours, with about half an hour slack water; the strength at springs was 2 knots; the rise and fall approximately 12 feet. It is probable that at a little distance from the bank, and when out of the influence of the tidal streams that exist upon it, the currents vary in direction and velocity at different times of the year.

Fish in abundance were caught on the bank.

Having regard to the nature of this examination as detailed by Commander Pullen, it is considered that the several shoal soundings hitherto reported on or near St. Lazarus bank fall within the area assigned to it by H. M. S. Stork.

BAY OF BENGAL.

BURMA COAST.

Regarding Baragna Flats—Gulf of Martaban.

COMMANDER ALFRED CARPENTER, R.N., in charge Marine Survey of India, has given notice that the I. M. Steamer Enterprise having carefully examined the southern edge of these flats found that the soundings shown on the present Admiralty Chart had not altered.

Navigators should bear in mind that high water full and change occurs at about 10h. 30m. west of the Krishna Shoal, and that the set of the stream will therefore differ very considerably from any calculation based on high or low water at Elephant Point, Rangoon.

Approaching Amherst, vessels will find a swatch of about 14 fathoms with 11 fathoms on either side of it lying near the western limit of Double Island light.

Soundings have altered very much in Lat. $15^{\circ} N$. and Long. $96^{\circ} 50' E$, the twenty fathom line now stretching out to that position. Indications of this change will be seen on Admiralty Chart 823, south of the parallel of 15 degrees.

MADRAS COAST.

Regarding Sacramento Shoal—Godavari Coast.

THE following information has been received from Commander Carpenter, R.N., in charge of the Marine Survey of India:—

Sacramento Shoal.—Lying in Lat. $16^{\circ} 35' 30''$ N., Long $82^{\circ} 19'$ E, is a sand bank which nearly dries. From it, Hope Island light-house bears North distant $13\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

Its outer edge is two miles from the line of coast.

The ten fathom line runs two miles outside the bank.

There are always breakers on it except at its very extreme.

An arm of the Godavari River has formed two spits, the southern of which is called the Sacramento Shoal. There is excellent anchorage of four fathoms under the lee of the northern spit. Between the spits there is a channel into the river having nine feet on the bar at low water; and deep water inside right up to the Godavari.

The only clearing mark by day is Thirthalmundi village, which stands on a mound with an obelisk among the huts bearing N. by W. which leads one mile outside the shoal.

By night, Hope Island light visible on a clear night from a few ratlines up the rigging, bearing N. by W. leads two miles outside the shoal.

Bearings are Magnetic.

BAY OF BENGAL.

ORISSA COAST.

Navigators cautioned when passing the localities near the Dévi River mouth and entrance into Chilka Lake.

By a recent survey of the coast between the Mahanaddi river and Gopalpur, it was found that the coast was quite free from submerged dangers. A small bank projects three-quarters of a mile seaward from the Dévi river mouth, and a similar one projects half a mile seaward from the entrance into Chilka lake.

Vessels should not shoal to less than 9 fathoms when passing these localities.

Otherwise the coast is clear, but the ten-fathom line frequently runs within three-quarters of a mile of the breakers on the shore.

There is a channel of 8 feet at low water into the Dévi river.

The northern mouth of the Mahanaddi appears to have closed, and the breakers off the southern mouth are now extending seaward.

Between Dévi river and Gopalpur the 20-fathom line varies from 5 to 13 miles off shore, and the 100-fathom line maintains a fairly uniform distance off shore of 18 miles.

Distances judged by eye are very deceptive on this coast.

Bearings are magnetic.

4. The sanitary arrangements in such places shall be regulated generally by the rules prescribed under Act I of 1882 for depôts, subject to such modification as the Magistrate of the district may consider necessary where the accommodation provided is for a small number of occupants, or is for temporary use only.

Intended alteration of Savage Island Light—Port of Akyab.

The Port Officer, Rangoon, through Commander Alfred Carpenter, R.N., in charge Marine Survey of India, has given notice that it is intended to alter both the height and character of the Savage Island light at the entrance of the Port of Akyab, on the coast of Arracan, by raising the present tower 20 feet, and substituting a 1st class light for the present 3rd class one.

The alterations will be taken in hand at the commencement of the next cold season.

During the alterations the present light will be exhibited from a temporary wooden structure close to and to the southward of the present Light-house, and of the same height, that is, 98 feet above H. W. level.

The transferring of the present light from the present structure to the temporary wooden one will take some days, and during this time a blue light will be burnt from the foot of the present structure every quarter of an hour from sunset to sunrise.

As the present light, when removed to the temporary structure, will be obscured to the northward by the permanent Light-house, a white light will be hoisted on the flagstaff at Fakir Point, as a guide to vessels entering and leaving the port at night. The new light will be a first class dioptric one, fixed and flashing at intervals of one minute, exhibited from a masonry tower at a height of 118 feet above H. W. level, and visible on a clear night at a distance of 16 to 18 miles. Its arc of visibility will be the same as the present light, viz., 264° from seaward.

BOMBAY COAST.

Removal of Karwar Rock Buoy, and direction of the rock indicated by two large boulders.

The following information has been received through Commander Alfred Carpenter, R.N., in charge Marine Survey of India:—

Karwar.—The Port Officer of Karwar has given notice that the Karwar Rock Buoy has been removed and will not be replaced. Two large boulders on the west side of Karwar Head have been white-washed, and the lower boulder of the two has a vertical red stripe.

When these two marks are in line, they indicate the direction of the rock.

Vessels approaching or leaving the port should avoid that hue until well clear of the vicinity of the rock.

INDIA—EAST.

MADRAS COAST.

Masulipatam.—CAPTAIN FRANKS, of the S.S. Madura, reports that the soundings are shoaling off Masulipatam, and it is probable that there has been a good deal of change altogether off the Kistna river since the last survey.

Vessels approaching that coast should use the lead freely. It will probably be resurveyed in the winter of 1890.

ANDAMAN ISLANDS.

Regarding Little Andaman, Jane's Patch and Diligent Straits.

The following information has been received from Commander Alfred Carpenter, R.N., in charge of the Marine Survey of India:—

Little Andaman.—The bank off the S. W. Point of this Island has now been thoroughly examined. There are some rocky ridges in the centre, partly overgrown with weed, with as little as 5½ fathoms over them. In the S. W. monsoon the rollers on the bank are probably dangerous. The shoal centre lies in latitude 10° 31' N., longitude 92° 13' E.

Jane's Patch—marked on charts of the Andaman Islands in latitude 12° 9' N., longitude 93° 12' E., does not exist; but Minerva Ledge is in its correct position.

Diligent Straits.—These straits having been thoroughly surveyed are found to be free from danger, except between Strait Island and Wilson Island (formerly called Round Hill Point). The dangers in this portion may be avoided by keeping South Button Island, just touching the north point of Outram Island, on a bearing of N. E. ½ E. South Button Island may be passed close to on its northern side. There is a two-fathom patch one mile north of the N. W. point of Wilson Island (or Round Hill.)

The Port Officer, Rangoon, through Commander Alfred Carpenter, R.N., in charge Marine Survey of India, has given notice that it is intended to alter both the height and character of the Savage Island light at the entrance of the Port of Akyab, on the coast of Arracan, by raising the present tower 20 feet, and substituting a 1st class light for the present 3rd class one.

The alterations will be taken in hand at the commencement of the next cold season.

During the alterations the present light will be exhibited from a temporary wooden structure close to and to the southward of the present Light-house, and of the same height, that is, 98 feet above H. W. level.

The transferring of the present light from the present structure to the temporary wooden one will take some days, and during this time a blue light will be burnt from the foot of the present structure every quarter of an hour from sunset to sunrise.

As the present light, when removed to the temporary structure, will be obscured to the northward by the permanent Light-house, a white light will be hoisted on the flagstaff at Fakir Point, as a guide to vessels entering and leaving the port at night. The new light will be a first class dioptric one, fixed and flashing at intervals of one minute, exhibited from a masonry tower at a height of 118 feet above H. W. level, and visible on a clear night at a distance of 16 to 18 miles. Its arc of visibility will be the same as the present light, viz., 264° from seaward.

THE following information has been received through Commander Alfred Carpenter, R.N., in charge Marine Survey of India:—

Karwar.—The Port Officer of Karwar has given notice that the Karwar Rock Buoy has been removed and will not be replaced. Two large boulders on the west side of Karwar Head have been white-washed, and the lower boulder of the two has a vertical red stripe.

When these two marks are in line, they indicate the direction of the rock.

Vessels approaching or leaving the port should avoid that line until well clear of the vicinity of the rock.

Intended alteration of Savage Island Light—Port of Akyab.

The Port Officer, Rangoon, through Commander Alfred Carpenter, R.N., in charge Marine Survey of India, has given notice that it is intended to alter both the height and character of the Savage Island light at the entrance of the Port of Akyab, on the coast of Arracan, by raising the present tower 20 feet, and substituting a 1st class light for the present 3rd class one.

The alterations will be taken in hand at the commencement of the next cold season.

During the alterations the present light will be exhibited from a temporary wooden structure close to and to the southward of the present Light-house, and of the same height, that is, 90 feet above H. W. level.

The transferring of the present light from the present structure to the temporary wooden one will take some days, and during this time a blue light will be burnt from the foot of the present structure every quarter of an hour from sunset to sunrise.

As the present light, when removed to the temporary structure, will be obscured to the northward by the permanent Light-house, a white light will be hoisted on the flagstaff at Fakir Point, as a guide to vessels entering and leaving the port at night. The new light will be a first class dioptric one, fixed and flashing at intervals of one minute, exhibited from a masonry tower at a height of 118 feet above H. W. level, and visible on a clear night at a distance of 16 to 18 miles. Its arc of visibility will be the same as the present light, viz., 264° from seaward.

Existence of Hector Bank.

THE British Admiralty has given notice (Notice to Mariners No. 157 of 1889) that information has been received that Mr. Madge, commanding the British Telegraph steam-ship Recorder, has reported having in January 1889 passed over the position formerly assigned to Hector Bank (removed from the Admiralty Charts in 1885 in consequence of its having been unsuccessfully searched for by a Netherlands surveying vessel) in the southern entrance to Carimata Strait, and obtained soundings of 7 to 8 fathoms, the extent of the bank being estimated as about 3 miles.

Mr. Madge states that on previous occasions, when commanding the British Telegraph steam-ship Agnes, he had passed over Hector Bank three times, the least depth then found being 5 fathoms.

Consequent on the above, Hector Bank, with a least depth of $8\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms, and 6 to 8 fathoms around (as originally reported), has been replaced on the Admiralty Charts in lat. $3^{\circ} 45\frac{1}{2}' S.$, long. $110^{\circ} 8\frac{1}{2}' E.$

Bank North-West of Pratas Island.

THE British Admiralty has given Notice (No. 166 of 1889) that information has been received from Captain the Hon'ble F. C. P. Vereker, H. M. Surveying Vessel Rambler, that whilst proceeding to the vicinity of the dangers reported by the Dorothea, Alden Besse, and Cyclone (Hossack shoals), in order to search for them, a bank (Vereker bank) was struck, lying about 45 miles north-westward of Pratas Island :—

This bank of coral and shells, with a least depth found of 39 fathoms, is circular in shape, with a diameter, within the 100-fathoms line, of about 8 miles.

Position of 39 fathoms (situated about two miles westward of the centre of the bank), lat. $21^{\circ} 5'$ N., long. $115^{\circ} 59'$ E.

CAUTION.—As the examination of this bank only extended over two days, and the bank is of large area, it cannot be considered certain that no small dangerous patch exists. Currents are strong and variable in the locality, and it is by no means improbable that the positions given by the Dorothea and Alden Besse, which agree in latitude with that of Vereker bank, may be many miles in error in longitude.

Until thoroughly searched, this bank should therefore be regarded as a danger.

No indication of shoaling was found near the Hassock shoal or Dorothea, but bad weather prevented a complete search being made.
